MISS ELLEN CRAFT WILL BE NUMBERED AMONG DEBUTANTES

MISS ELLEN CRAFT.

One of the loveliest of the many charming girls who will be among the season's debutantes, is Miss Ellen Craft, who will be introduced to society in November by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Craft, after which she will be complimented with numerous delightful social affairs.

She is most attractive and accomplished and enjoys widespread popularity. Miss Craft has just been welcomed home from Atlanta, where she received much attention as a pretty member of the Ross-McAdams wedding.

Announcements

BRILLIANT RECEPTION IN HONOR OF MRS. WILLINGHAM

Among the earliest of the brilliant social events of the season will be the reception planned by members of the Nineteenth Century club to honor their president, Mrs. E. G. Willingham. The reception will be given from 3 to 5 on the afternoon of Friday, Nov. 5. Specially invited guests of the club will be the visiting officers and delegates in attendance at the state convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

HALLOWEEN LUNCHEON WILL BE LOVELY AFFAIR.

A lovely and most enjoyable affair, which is being eagerly anticipated, will be the Halloween luncheon given at the Nineteenth Century club on Monday, Nov. 1. A Halloween motif will be carried out in the decorations and a delicious menu in keeping with the autumn season will be served under the supervision of Mrs. G. A. Lavison. Miss Octavia Love, chairman of the luncheon committee, will preside as special hostess in the dining room, assisted by the members of her committee, and the guests will be greeted upon their arrival by Mrs. Hill Bond, chairman, and the members of her Goodfellowship committee. A special musical program has been arranged for the occasion by Mrs. J. P. Hill, chairman of the department of dramatic art.

The reservations for the luncheon closed on Friday, the guest list being limited to 200, and club members may now make their reservations with the custodian, Mrs. Walter Fraser for the armistice luncheon, which will be given on Nov. 8, and for which Mrs. J. P. Hill will arrange a musical program in keeping with Armistice day.

For the Halloween luncheon the officers and members of the board of directors will form a congenial party and many other parties have been arranged for the occasion, one of the largest being that planned by Mrs. Percy Finlay. Other parties which make up the guest list will include from two to a dozen, among those entertaining friends, being: Mrs. W. E. Barnes, A. B. Bartholomew, H. G. Lambert, J. O. Flatt, M. S. Burnett, George Bone, Austin Tindall, P. P. H. Conover, E. C. Klaim, C. L. Friend, L. C. Moore, Ben Spears, M. L. Veasy, Irvy Bennett, J. D. Allen, Sr., J. M. McEwe, Warren Brown, E. R. Washburn, W. S. Myrick, J. W. Humphreys, Sam Beach, Sr., John Lucien, L. Harrison, A. B. Wohlgenuth, Hugh Street, J. M. Goff, K. R. Armistead, Thomas Sherron, J. W. Norris, J. H. Lumpkin, Elliott Lane, Ernest Adams, Hill Bond and Misses Frances Cole and Edith Riley.

Weems-Belton Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Katherine Weems, formerly of Knoxville, Tenn., and Mr. George DeWitt Belton, of Ripley, Tenn., will be solemnized on Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the First Baptist church, the Rev. A. B. Boone officiating.

Miss Weems has chosen Miss Corinne Jackson as her maid of honor and Mr. Edwin Bock, of Chicago, will serve as best man.

Charming Child Visits Memphis

ESTELLE BRABANT.

There has been no more popular visitor in Memphis in some time than little Estelle Antoinette Brabant, the lovely six-months-old daughter of Mr. August Eugene Brabant, of Little France, and his charming young wife, who was formerly Miss Dorothy Lake. This tiny beauty spent the summer in the home of her grandparents, Col. and Mrs. Richard Pinkney Lake, on McLean boulevard. In the picture she is shown wearing the christening robe of her grandmother, Mrs. Stella McKnight Hoffa, and the cap of her great-grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Donelson Hoffa.

CLUBDOM

PRESENT EXTRAVAGANZA FOR PARENT-TEACHER FUND

"O, O, Cindy," will be produced in Memphis at the Lyric theater on the evening of Nov. 12 and a matinee on the following day under the auspices of the finance committee of the Memphis Federation of Parent-Teacher associations. It will be directed by a representative of the John B. Rogers Producing Co., of New York, an organization whose reputation and success in this line of work is widely known.

The play is being put on by the finance committee of the federation to add to its treasury, upon which are many calls as this big organization of teachers and parents seeks to better the condition of the school child, keep him in school and if need be put clothes on his body, so that he may stand a chance along with his neighbors to become a useful citizen rather than a victim of misfortune and a burden to society.

Mrs. Berry Brooks, the chairman of the finance committee, is general chairman of the production. She has called for talent for singing, dancing and dramatic groups from the various Parent-Teacher associations and on the outside.

Members of the cast and choruses will be selected from the best talent in the city. It promises to be of exceptional merit as the talent is of
